Association of Class Presidents

The Association of Class Presidents met on Wednesday evening last for the purpose of making arrangements for an annual. Prof. Vance and Drs. Philips and Shute were present and expressed their views and those of the faculty in regard to this matter. After much discussion upon the different plans presented the following was adopted:

The association will at its meeting on Sunday select two students to act respectively as editor in chief and business manager. The board of editors shall consist of the two mentioned and one editor from each class in the University, to be chosen by election.

These officers are all to be honorary and the profits of the publication will be made into a permanent fund to be known as the annual fund.

The classes have been asked to select their representatives at once so that a meeting of the board may be held and work commenced.

Canoe Club

The regular monthly meeting of the George Washington University Canoe Club was held on Friday, January 6, at the Medical School. After disposing of various items of miscellaneous business including the report of the committee on the dance, held December 30, Vice Commodore William H. Smith asked permission of the club to make a few remarks. After speaking at length of the formation and history of the organization and making an urgent appeal to the members to display more interest, Mr. Smith stated, that owing to the fact that all of the members of the commodore's staff were medical men and therefore the club appeared to be a medical organization, that the members of the other departments seemed loath to affiliate. He concluded by saying that since he thought that the other departments should be represented on the roster of officers and inasmuch as he personally could render better service to the club, if a private, he desired to tender his resignation as Vice Commodore to take immediate effect. His resignation was accepted with regret and a vote of thanks offered him for the efficient service which he had rendered the organization.

Commodore Heflebower took this opportunity of expressing his sorrow of losing, as he termed it, his right hand man. Mr. Smith had been one of the organizers of the club and had been untiring in his efforts for its welfare. He had been both conscientious and energetic in the performance of his duties and was in a great measure responsible for the success which the club now enjoys.

Mr. Harry Lerch, of the Law Department, was then unanimously elected Vice Commodore.

The club will hold its second dance sometime during the latter part of February and expects it to be a great success. Their first dance was such an unlooked for social success that probably a larger hall will have to be secured for future occasions.

Dramatic Club

The work of the Dramatic Club has now begun in earnest. The parts have been placed for several weeks and two rehearsals have been held. Mr. Hickman will begin his coaching on February 6, and the first performance is set for February 25. The sketches are all very effective and the performers have shown up well in their preliminary rehearsals. The performance was expected to occur at a near date than that set, but it was deemed best to take full time and run no risk of the initial appearance being a failure.

Chess Club

The Chess Club held its first regular meeting last Thursday evening. The report of the Committee on Constitution was received, and after the proposed constitution had been thoroughly discussed and amended in some details, it was accepted. The constitution as adopted provides that the club be known as the Columbian Chess Club of George Washington University; that its membership be limited to ten, all to be students of Columbian College or the Department of Arts and Sciences of George Washington University; and that regular meetings be held every other Friday during the college year. It further provides for an annual tournament during the month of March each year.

After the adoption of the constitution the club proceeded to elect officers. Mr. Veerhoff and Mr. Bennett were nominated for the office of president, and received an equal number of votes on a dozen or more successive ballots. It was then proposed that the rival candidates play a game of chess to decide the election, the winner of the game to become president, and the loser to take the office of knight. This suggestion was adopted by the club. Proceeding with the election, Miss Stella Barbour was then elected vice president, and Mr. Solyom to the double office of secretary and treasurer.

The club then took up the real business of the evening, chess playing, and three interesting games were soon in progress. Games were won by Mr. Solyom and Mr. Stivers. The game between Mr. Veerhoff and Mr. Bennett, on which was to depend the presidency of the club, was a hard-fought battle, the contestants being very equally matched. At 10:30, in response to the fervent appeal of the janitor who wanted to lock up, the game stopped, Mr. Veerhoff having the advantage. The game has not as yet been finished.

The Chess Club is ready to receive applications for membership from students in the College and the Department of Arts and Science. In limiting their membership to these departments, they would suggest that chess players in the other departments of the University get together and organize, and would be very glad to arrange a tournament with any club that may be organized.

Chairman Committee on Schedule.

The Junior Class of the College held its regular meeting on Monday evening, January 6. After the report of the Treasurer had been received, the class proceeded to the election of an editor for the Annual, Mr. W. K. West being chosen. The question of participating in the inaugural parade, brought up a rather warm discussion, the class finally recording itself in favor of the proposition. Messrs. Whitmore and Faustman were appointed a committee to confer with the other classes as to the advisability of a college dance, with instruction to favor the holding of one during the Easter holidays.

The Sophomore Club met Friday evening, January 13, at the home of Miss Bethune. A very novel game formed the first part of the evening's entertainment. It was participated in with much enjoyment by the members, Miss Cochran and Mr. Macdonald winning the prizes.

Dainty refreshments were served and musical selections rendered by Miss Birch and Miss Bethune.

The Sophomore Class held a business meeting, Monday, January 16, at 6:30.

Mr. Macdonald was elected to represent the class on the University Annual; the matter of the class participating in the inaugural parade was brought up and discussed at some length, the general sentiment of the meeting being unfavorable to it.

The weather man has certainly had an eye out for the Skating Club. Since the auspicious date of its founding, there has been a steady succession of cold spells. People who do not skate may shiver and grumble but since the cold weather must come anyway, the Skating Club welcomes it enthusiastically. As a climax to the fun of the winter, there is some talk of a grand college skating carnival, to be held some moonlight night after the examinations are over. All who have joined in similar parties know how much pure fun is to be gotten out of them.

A jolly college crowd on skates with their lights tossing over the ice, roaring log fires on the banks, and a fine hot camp supper would certainly insure one of the most picturesque and delightful evenings of the college year.

The Freshman Class of the College held a special meeting Friday evening, January 13, in West Hall. The attendance was slight but in spite of this some important business was transacted. The date of the next Freshman dance was changed to February 1, the former date being very unsatisfactory to all, and the preliminary business relating to this dance settled. The athletic manager, Mr. Turkenton, made a report and urged the challenging of the Georgetown College Freshmen to a spring athletic meet. The matter was laid aside for consideration later.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements concerning the participation of the class in the inaugural parade. The committee for the college dance was appointed as follows: Misses Evans and Field and Mr. Van Vleet. A motion was carried to appoint a committee to arrange with the other classes in the University for the proper celebration of the twenty-second of February and the committee was appointed as follows: Mr. Gates, chairman, and Miss Richardson and Mr. Hershey.

Kappa Alpha

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity gave a dance at their chapter house, 1931 K Street northwest, on Tuesday, the 10th instant, in honor of Miss Leonora Haroldson Owsley, of Atlanta, Ga.

Delta Tau Delta

During the course of the present session the Delta Taus have held many delightful informal dances at their chapter house. The house is well adapted to this purpose and the members take advantage of it on every occasion.

On last Saturday evening a large number were entertained, consisting of the local chapter, members of the alumni and their friends. After a short reception dancing was begun and continued until far into the morning.

Phi Chi

On the evening of January 14, the members of Phi Chapter of Phi Chi Fraternity, held its third meeting of the year for the purpose of initiation. The following gentlemen were introduced into the mysteries of Phi Chi: S. C. Henning, '05; W. W. Wilkinson, '05; J. J. Wharton, '05; C. F. Bowers, '07; W. R. Barnesby, '07; W. A. Mess, '07; H. D. Chichester, '07; A. C. Gonzales, '07; F. J. Brown, '08; and T. E. Griffith, '08.

At the completion of the initiation ceremonies, a banquet was given in honor of the new members, which was well attended by faculty, alumnae, associate and student members. Phi Chi is a Medical Fraternity, having sixteen chapters, in various medical schools of the country, principally in the South and Middle West.

Phi Chapter was granted its charter March 21, 1904, and since its institution has been making strenuous efforts to demonstrate its usefulness to the University.

Dental Notes

Dr. A. J. Fluckey and E. E. Belford, of the '04 Dental Class, have successfully passed the Ohio State Board.

Dr. C. A. Putnam, of the 1900 Dental Class, has opened an office at Easthampton, Mass.

Mr. Wood and Pendergast of the Senior Class, have returned to their classes after two weeks' absence on account of illness.

Saturday night of last week, the Senior Dental Class formed an organization to promote their class interests. Mr. A. M. Bassford was elected President and Mr. R. W. Lowe, Secretary.

The Dental Class is complaining about having to sit in cold lecture halls. Saturday night one hall was so cold the Senior Class were unable to attend the lecture. A committee has been appointed to wait on the President of the University and ask for more "hot air."

Debating Notes

The matter of debating the Iowa State University next December was brought before the debating societies last Friday evening and was laid over for final action until this week, at which time the Intercollegiate Debate Committee will submit a rough draft of a contract to govern the debate in the event favorable action is taken on challenging our western friends. As this is a very important question, it is hoped that all members of the Needham and Columbian Societies will endeavor to be present at the meeting.

A committee, of which President McLean, of the Second Year Law, is chairman, was appointed last Friday evening to make all arrangements for the trip down to Charlottesville on February 18, to attend the Virginia debate. The success of the excursion seems assured, and any student desiring to visit the university of the Old Dominion as well as Monticello, should think twice before letting this excellent opportunity slip by. A jolly time is anticipated and the rate of one fare ($3.40) for the round trip makes the excursion within reach of all. By all means, let us get together and give our boys the encouragement they deserve by going down in a large body to cheer them in the debate. Let us show our worthy "Virginians" what an enthusiastic lot of fellows we have, and let us make the halls of the University that has sheltered so many great men ring with the name of George Washington. Not only should our student body be well represented, but members of the faculty should be encouraged to join the excursion. As a list will be passed around for the names of those who desire to go, every man who can spare the time and money should immediately signify his intention. Rally 'round, boys, and help us "give 'em the ax" and "railroad George Washington" at Charlottesville on Saturday afternoon, February 18.

There was a very good attendance at the Columbian meeting last Friday to listen to the debate on the question, Resolved, That the ownership, operation, and control of the railroads of the United States by the government would be for the best interests of the people. This debate was pronounced by all present as one of the best of the year, and the gentlemen who contributed to its success were, for the affirmative, Alvin L. Newmyer, Donald C.

Muhleman, and Walter L. Furbershaw; for the negative, Richard J. Quigley, Wilbur R. Leech, and Herbert W. Meyers. The judges decided in favor of the negative, awarding first honors to Mr. Meyers, and second honors to Mr. Newmyer. The distinguishing feature of the debate was the excellent team work on both sides, and many more such debates will develop good timber for intercollegiate work next year.

Reports from those in charge of the sale of tickets for the lecture on Friday afternoon, for the benefit of the football team seem to indicate that but little interest is being taken in that affair. It may be that all are waiting until Friday to buy their tickets and it is to be hoped that this is true. Since the Athletic Council has gone to the trouble of getting Mr. Bulkley to deliver this lecture, and since he has consented to do so, purely out of interest in our University, it seems that if no other reason that courtesy to those gentlemen we should attend. But in addition to this we have a reason, the best possible. A very easy means is offered to entirely clear the Athletic Association of its entire deficit. We make an earnest appeal to every student to look at the matter in the right light, and to realize how little it means to him and how much to the Athletic Association and its success. Come to the front for once at least and show that some dependence may be placed upon the student body. The failure of this lecture would demonstrate in most emphatic terms that the students take no interest whatever in the athletic affairs of the University. You can't afford to let this happen.

Come to the theater Friday afternoon, and if for any cause you can't come, buy a ticket and give it to some one who will enjoy hearing a good lecture.

Interest in the group of buildings for the University at Van Ness Park is becoming quite general throughout the country. An original half-tone of the tentative plans appeared as a supplement to Harper's Weekly on December 31st. By courtesy of the publishers the University has caused a copy of this cut to be printed for distribution with President Needham's monograph on "The Relation of Education to Patriotism."

Miss Josephine Short will speak upon "The Education of Women in Spain and the Work of the International Institute for Girls in that Country." It is also hoped that Prof. Henning will speak of his travels in Spain. A very interesting as well as instructive evening is anticipated.

Graduate Club

The Graduate Club met in University Hall, Friday evening, for the first time since the election of the new officers for the year 1904-5. In the absence of the President and Vice President, the Secretary, Mr. L. Russell Alden, presided. After a brief business meeting, Dr. Carroll and Dr. Hopkins made short but stirring addresses. The club then yielded the floor to Mr. Henry R. Evans, a former student of the University, who entertained them delightfully with an exhibition of parlor magic. The meeting closed with a rising vote of thanks to Mr. Evans, and all present voted the occasion a great success.

The University Congress

The session of the University Congress, last Saturday evening was well attended. The bill to establish a whipping post in the District of Columbia for the punishment of "wife-beaters" and persons guilty of petty larceny, was the measure before the house for discussion. Several of those who have recently joined the Congress, made arguments in favor of, or opposed to, the measure, which were creditable in the extreme, and as some of the best material on the Intercollegiate Debate teams during the past few years, has come from the Congress, we are assured that record will be maintained.

It was thoroughly demonstrated that a measure although upon its face, non-productive of argument, provided that the impression is conveyed that the speaker has a personal interest in his subject.

Although the "anti-wife-beaters" were inspired by the presence of members of the fair sex, they were unable to secure the passage of the measure. The final vote being, Ayes, 9; nays, 7, with several not voting. Before adjournment Mr. Rickard, of Hawaii, was elected speaker for the ensuing term.

At the meeting next Saturday evening the following bill will be considered:

Be it enacted by the University Congress in regular session assembled that the postal laws are hereby amended and the Postmaster General is authorized to issue regulation for the reception and transmission of parcels and packages through the mails, provided the actual weights of each parcel or package does not exceed twenty-five pounds. He is further authorized to promulgate a tariff regulating the charges for transportation of such parcels and packages.

In charge of the measure will be Mr. Kennedy, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Moore, of Tennessee. Opposition to the bill will be lead by Mr. Farley, of Tennessee, and Mr. Yellott, of Virginia.

Briefs for the two sides are:

In favor of passage. Parcels post should be established because:

I. It would enable the common people to enjoy a convenience, now only enjoyed by the better classes.

II. It would greatly accelerate other mail order industry.

III. It would build a system of circulating libraries which would grow to proportions equal with the great circulations of national magazines.

IV. Other countries have adopted it with success.

V. The present rural delivery, costing twenty millions annually could be advantageously used in connection with parcel delivery.

The establishment of the parcel post is undesirable because:

I. It would render further aid to aggregate of capital to oppress the smaller merchant and manufacturer.

(a) The merchant in the small town would be driven out of business.

(b) It would eliminate the small manufacturer.

(c) Department stores and catalogue houses would further monopolize the trade.

(d) Centralization in business should be checked.

II. Its partial success in foreign countries is no reason for its adoption in the United States.

(a) The relation of the government to the people is different.

(b) Industrial conditions are different.

III. It is contrary to public policy.

(a) Postoffices and post roads are for the transmission of intelligence, not freight.

(b) It would afford great opportunity for political corruption.

(c) The complex financial arrangements would make fraud easy.

(d) It will not pay.

(e) Government interference in commerce is undesirable.

(f) It is increasing government interference in the field of private action.

College World

Lehigh University is endeavoring to find a suitable person to fill the college presidency made vacant by the death on November 16 of Dr. T. M. Drown. Mr. Schwab, the well-known financier, has been suggested as a candidate to fill the vacancy that occurs in Lehigh's board of trustees.

Columbia University wrestlers took the initiative in the formation of an intercollegiate wrestling association for the promotion of wrestling championships. Temporary officers were elected and negotiations opened with Yale, Princeton, Cornell and Pennsylvania for a co-operative interest in making this a regular form of intercollegiate athletics.

Pennsylvania, Columbia and Cornell have formed a triangular debating league by which all three universities debate on the same subject on the same date. Each university enters two teams, one of which debates at home, the other away, one team supporting the affirmative of the question under discussion and the other the negative. Negotiations are being held for the purpose of forming Harvard, Yale and Princeton into a similar league.—Exchange.

The "Oberlin Review" in commenting on the inability of any set of college editors to put out a paper that is entirely satisfactory to its quasi-supporters, offers to name the following staff as a most likely one: Editor-in-Chief, Benjamin Franklin; Assistant Editor, Horace Greely; Financial Manager, Baron Mayer de Rochchild; Assistant Manager, J. Gould; News Editor, Mercury and William R. Hearst; Exchange Editor, James Boswell; Athletics, Hercules and Casper Whitney; Literary Editors, Marie Corelli and Brander Mathews; Alumni, Methuselah.

Perhaps this might suit all the students, but it is doubtful. Methuselah wouldn't get in alumni news dating back far enough, ideas wouldn't coincide with those of Hercules on athletics or Hearst's politics wouldn't suit. Something would be wrong.—Ex.
